Programme.

1. Chorus "The Star-Spangled Banner"

Oh say, can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming;
Whose broad stripes and bright stars thro' the perilous fight

O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming :

And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there :

May the star-spangled banner in triumph ever wave,
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

On shore, dimly seen, thro' the mist of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes ;
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses ?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam
In full glory reflected, now shines in the stream.

May the star-spangled banner, etc.

Oh ! thus be it ever when free man shall stand
Between their loved home and the war's desolation
Blessed with victory and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land

Praise the power that has made and preserved us a nation !

For conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto, "In God is our trust !"

May the star-spangled banner, etc.

2. Song "The First Violet" Mendelssohn GIRLS OF FORM III.

3. Song (Two-part) "The Song of the Gale" Myles Foster BOYS OF FORM III.

4. (a) Trio "From the Green Heart of the Waters" Coleridge Taylor (Nymph's Song, from the Opera "Ulysses.")

From the green heart of the waters
We, old Ocean's daughters,
Have floated up with mortal man to play !
Out of the green translucent night,
Up to the purple earthly light,
To dance with creatures of a day !

For alas ! we have seen the sailor asleep,
Where the anchor rusts on the ooze of the deep :
But never, never before,
Have we seen a mortal dance on the long sea-shore.
See ! See ! Ulysses, weary and wise,
Sing low, with downcast eyes.

For he rouses at last,
And his eyes are cast,
To the land where his spirit would be !
Over the violet sea !
Alas ! for the arms that yearn,
Alas ! for the eyes that burn,
Ulysses ! Ulysses !

(b) Song "Don Juan's Serenade" Tschaikowsky GIRLS OF FORM IV.

5. Choruses (a) "La Marsellaise" (b) "God Save the King"
